TEACHER ANSWER KEY

Primary Five English Grammar — Term One, Week 6, Lesson 4: WHILE AND WHEN

A. Complete

1. when

2. While

3. when

4. While

5. when

6. While

B. Rewrite or correct

7. I was walking home when it started raining.

8. While Asha was writing, Musa was reading.

9. She was cooking when I arrived.

10. While we were playing, the lights went off.

C. Correct the mistakes

11. When the bell rang, I was writing.

12. I was sleeping when the rain began.

13. While she was reading, he was writing.

14. They were playing when it rained.

D. Short responses

15. Example: While often introduces an action that was continuing in the past.

16. Example: While I was reading, the bell rang.

17. Example: While and when connect events in the past. They can help us show actions happening together or interruptions.

E. Original sentences

18. Example: While I was reading, the bell rang.

19. Example: Amina was cooking when the visitors arrived.

20. Example: While the boys were playing, the girls were singing.

Accept other grammatically correct equivalent answers. For open-ended questions, check that the sentence follows the rules of the lesson and expresses a clear meaning.